G. H. GOODSPEED,
SELECTMEN OF LITCHFIELD.

REPORT
OF THE
SCHOOL COMMITTEE
OF THE
TOWN OF LITCHFIELD,

DISTRICT NO. I.

GEORGE H. GOODSPEED, PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE.

This school, taught by Miss Jennie L. Thompson, was particularly fortunate in securing the services of a teacher who is a natural instructor, and one who reaches success by the means of those gentle methods which bring love and sympathy. Perhaps it is unnecessary to say that Miss Thompson gave the school excellent instruction the entire school year of two terms. We find upon the "Roll of Honor" the names of Edith R. Leach and Clinton Leach the first term, and Eliza K. Parker, George Dow McQuesten and Frankie J. McQuesten, the second term.

DISTRICT NO. II.

J. ABBOTT MARSH, PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE.

This school, taught by Miss Annie A. Marsh, was one in which much hard work was done, and it accomplished good results. An earnest endeavor on the part of the teacher, and patient toil by the pupils, were manifest throughout the school year of three terms. On the "Roll of Honor" we find the names of Mary L. Marsh, Annie E. Putnam and Walter T. McQuesten the first term, Newman H. Scott, Walter T. McQuesten, Mena Selvess and Nettie C. Baker the second term, and Mary C. Whittemore, Annie E. Putnam, Fred. H. Putnam, W. Elbert Putnam, and Walter T. McQuesten the third term.

DISTRICT NO. III.

ALEXANDER TAGGART, PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE.

This school, taught by Miss Laura Center, was a decided success. Perfect sympathy and co-operation in the school work existed between teacher and pupils. Miss Center taught the whole school year three times. On the "Roll of Honor" are the names of Evaline Lefavor and Daniel W. Bradt the first term, Hugh J. Taggart and Nellie Lefavor the second term, and Hugh J. Taggart the third term.

DISTRICT NO. IV.

WILLIAM CORNING, PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE.

This school, taught by Miss Nettie E. Smith, was as "big" a success as could be expected of a school of five or seven pupils. Miss Smith labored faithfully and perseveringly, and she accomplished a good work. Miss Smith taught the entire school year, two terms. We find upon the "Roll of Honor" the names of Lottie F. Corning, Clara B. Corning and Alice J. Richardson the first term, and Lottie F. Corning, Minnie Richardson and Alice J. Richardson the second term.

We congratulate you upon the good schools which you have enjoyed the past year. We have noted, with satisfaction, that each teacher has been employed throughout the year.

If good teachers, when once obtained, could be retained, it would greatly facilitate the success of our schools. The too common habit of putting into the schools a new teacher each year and sometimes oftener, is detrimental to the best interests of the school. Successful school work is greatly embarrassed by the multiplicity and diversity of studies, and we sincerely desire that a thorough classification of school work may soon be accomplished. A thorough knowledge of the subjects taught, patience, energy, power of imparting knowledge and last, but not least, correct morals and quiet manners, these attributes of character the true teacher possesses. The teacher has the great work of directing the harmonious development of the moral, intellectual and physical nature of youth. His effort must have in view the formation of a noble manhood, womanhood and citizenship, as well as intellectual vigor and physical strength.

We would respectfully suggest that some action relative to a union of Districts 1 and 4 would be advisable, the houses being unsuitable for school purposes and the attendance small. If not a union, some action relative to an improvement in buildings, furniture and apparatus. Parents and citizens have an interest in the common schools second to no other; that they exhibit this interest in school visitations, not merely attending exercises on the "Last Day," but at their convenience during the school year, is earnestly desired by teachers, pupils and Committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

A. H. POWERS,
COMMITTEE.

LITCHFIELD, N. H., March 1, 1880.
